

eltromat with their international subsidiaries are one of the leading manufacturers of complex processor-controlled image processing and control systems for graphic industry worldwide. For the earliest possible starting date in our subsidiary eltromat Italia S.r.l. we are searching for service engineer / service technician (male / female)

Main tasks are:

- Installation and commissioning of new systems
- Maintenance and repair of existing systems
- Systematic trouble-shooting on-site (at customers)
- Upgrades / modifications of existing systems
- Training of service employees and customers
- Sales support with regard to technically challenging processes
- Determination of sales potential on-site (at customers)
- Independent travelling for service interventions worldwide
- Preparation / post-processing of service visits

- Good comprehension of complex systems and processes

If this job advertisement seems like the opportunity you are looking for and your qualification corresponds to our job profile, please forward your application documents to:

eltromat Italia S.r.l.
personal@eltromat.de www.eltromat.de

Your profile:

- Engineer or technician, specialized in electrical engineering (or comparable specialization)
- Knowledge of drive and ICA technology, bus systems
- Knowledge of industrial systems, preferably in printing industry
- Team skills, assertiveness, communication skills and willingness to travel (worldwide)
- Fluent in spoken and written English
- Several years of professional experience